

Nantwich Town Council

Press Release

Appointment of New Town Clerk

The start of the New Year brings with it a fresh face at Nantwich Town Council. Town Clerk, Riddell Graham, said 'farewell' at the last Town Council meeting on the 12th December. In his place the Town Council have appointed Ian Hope. A former Planning Officer, Ian is currently employed as Town Clerk at Frodsham and also serves two local parish councils.

Ian was educated in Nantwich and has spent most of his working life in the local area. He now lives in Wrenbury with his wife and two daughters. Outside work his main interests are walking and cricket.

The Leader of the Council, Councillor John Lewis, welcomed Ian's appointment and said

"With his local knowledge and background in local government, Ian will be a valuable asset to the Town Council and will assist the members in making decisions about Nantwich's future".

Ian is looking forward to taking up his appointment and addressing some of the main issues facing the town in the next couple of years.

Ian said

"I am very pleased to be able to serve the residents of my local town and look forward to helping Councillors to tackle issues relating to the future growth of the town and how the Town Council might take on the running of local facilities."

